ART. 1 | SUBJECT OF THE CALL

Art. 1.1. Characteristics of the Grants

The Grants enable the participation to a series of 5 (five) residencies covering the period August 2022 – November 2023, whose calendar is available at www.theresia.online/calendar and provisionally described in Art. 3.3.

Each Grant includes:

- Participation in the learning and artistic activities of Theresia Orchestra, including Orchestra Residencies, Chamber Music Academies, Specialized Workshops etc. to improve skills and experience in the performance of symphonic and chamber music repertoire of the Classical Era on period instruments.
- Participation in the scheduled concerts and recording activities at the end of each Orchestral Residency and Chamber Music Academy.
- Participation in the learning and artistic activities of the Theresia Academy, including capacity building sessions, soft skills development, co-creation workshops, etc.

Grantees will have to sign a binding Learning Agreement and commit to participate to all the scheduled Residencies and activities relevant to their instrument, their role within the orchestra and their own professionalizing path within Theresia.

The musicians who will be particularly distinguished by artistic merit at the end of their granting period may be invited, in the unquestionable judgment of the Artistic Direction of Theresia, to join the professional alumni orchestra named Concerto Theresia and/or by joining as tutors and/or concertmaster of their section and with a professional contract, for at least one more year of Theresia Orchestra activity.

Art. 1.2. Open Grants

Art. 2.3. Award of the Grant

All candidates participating to the live auditions in Salzburg will be ranked by the Boards of Examiners on a classification of merit, including motivational aspects.

Candidates with the highest score will be offered one of the available Grants. The remaining candidates, exceeding the availability of Grants, will not be admitted to the Learning Program of Theresia Orchestra for the one-year period August 2022 – November 2023.

Art. 2.4. Further Procedures

If the present Call fails to identify sufficient eligible candidates, Fondazione ICONS reserves the right to launch subsequently a new contest based on Learning Qualifications and Examinations for the conferral of the remaining available Grants.

ART. 3 | PROCEDURE OF ALLOCATION AND REPORTING OF THE GRANTS

Art. 3.1. Grant allocation and payment

All Grants will start in August 2022 and will be running up to November 2023.

The allocation of the Grants will be subject to the signature by the Grantee and Fondazione ICONS, of a binding Learning Agreement reflecting the provisions laid down in this Call.

The allocation of the Grants will be subject to the actual performance of training activities proposed for each Learning Program based on the reference instrument.

The allocation will be made by bank transfer and will be paid by instalments based on the progress in the Learning Program for each category of instrument and type of Grant.

Art. 3.2. Revocation of Grant and suspension of the Learning Program

The Foundation reserves the right, to its unquestionable judgment, to revoke the Grant if the musician being awarded fails in the prescribed learning obligations, viz.:

- If the musician fails to attend 5 (five) residencies within the duration of the grant
- If the musician shows no interest in attending to the proposed capacity building modules of the Theresia Academy
- If the study activity and participation is judged qualitatively inadequate by Fondazione ICONS management and/or musical conductors and/or tutors and/or learning supervisors.

In case of voluntary waiver of the Grant, the Scholar must compulsorily submit a request for waiver to Fondazione ICONS, which shall be assessed and formally approved by the General Council of Fondazione ICONS.

In both cases, the amounts already paid should be returned in full to Fondazione ICONS within 30 days of the date of notification of revocation to the Grantee. The voluntary waiver of the Grant implies the exclusion from the learning program.

Art. 3.3. General Schedule

Each grantee will be scheduled for 5 residencies (both orchestral and chamber music) from the Learning Program of the period August 2022 – November 2023. The detailed schedule and activities for each grantee will be agreed individually and determined by the Individual Learning Plan [ILP], attached to the Learning Agreement.

The ILP will be communicate according to the following calendar:
